James E. Lyle,

our headmaster, teacher, and friend. A man who has given us his time, patience, and help to create a school which we may all be proud of and appreciate. A friend who is always ready to listen and give his advice. A man who has earned our lasting friendship, respect, and admiration. The students of Brookwood dedicate the 1972 Warrior, to our headmaster.

Alma Mater

Mid the pines there stands an emblem,
Of the noble, true, and right,
Lifting up her values ever,
Hail to thee, the blue and white.

Future years may bring us triumph,
Days ahead may bring us pain:
But the memories of thy teaching,
Ever with us will remain.

We salute thee Dear Old Brookwood!
We will e'er to thee be true,
To the morals and the standards
Of our own dear white and blue.

By Lynn Gainey

Our best today for a better tomorrow.

White Lace and Promises

A kiss for luck
And we're on Our Way.

We've only begun . . .
Before the rising
Sun we fly.

So Many Roads
to Choose

We Start Out Walking and Learn to Run.

Sharing horizons that are new to us.
Watching the signs along the way.

Talking It Over
Just the Two of Us.

Working Together
Day to Day.

And when the Evening comes
We smile,
So much of Life ahead.

We'll Find a Place Where There's Room to Grow

And Yes
We've Just Begun . . .
